Cheyenne Board of REALTORS® (CBR) is committed to our members' professionalism and encourages them to explore leadership opportunities on the local, state, and national levels. CBR Leadership recognizes that members who may be interested in leadership could benefit from attending state, regional, and national meetings. Previous years leadership teams feel traveling to state, regional, and national meetings expands the members' experience with the REALTOR® Association and promotes a members desire to step up into leadership roles. Therefore, a scholarship has been created to assist members' travel expenses to Wyoming REALTORS®, NAR Region XI meetings, and National Association of REALTORS® meetings.

All REALTOR® members of CBR who meet the criteria below and are willing to fulfill the scholarship requirements are encouraged to apply by March 15th. A panel of four (4) past Presidents of the CBR selected by the current CBR President and the current CBR President will review all submitted applications and select recipients to be announced on or before April 1st.

Applicant Requirements:

- Applicant must be a current CBR REALTOR® member at the time of application and meeting dates.
- Applicant must demonstrate a commitment to professionalism, volunteerism, and a desire to develop leadership skills.

The Selected Recipient would be required to:

- Attend the meeting indicated on their application.
- Meet with the CBR Leadership Team prior to the meeting indicated on their application to determine what is covered by their scholarship, review the requirements, and discover important sessions to attend while at the meeting.
- Post daily while at the meetings to the CBR Member Facebook Group. (NOTE: posts should be about the meetings and experiences they are attending, not the sites they are seeing and food they are eating).
- Submit a report about their experience to the CEO to be shared with the CBR membership within 2 weeks of the meeting end date.
- Submit all receipts for reimbursement no later than 30 days after attending the meeting.

The Benefits:

- Paid travel expenses.
- Network with REALTORS® from around the country.
- Increase awareness for Wyoming REALTORS®, NAR, the REALTOR® Party, RPAC, and industry issues.
- Opportunity to attend business development opportunities, NAR meetings, REALTORS® Trade Expo, and experience the cities the meetings are held in.
